

PROCLAMATION

OFFICES OF THE GOVERNORS

WHEREAS: Wildfires increasingly pose a threat to homes and communities throughout the West, as more people move into the wildland areas of our states. Most of these fires are human caused.

WHEREAS: This unprecedented growth of the wildland-urban interface has elevated the need for wildfire prevention and preparedness at both the community and individual homeowner levels.

WHEREAS: A long-term climate trend and the build-up of forest fuels have further increased the wildfire risk. These factors, coupled with the expansion of the wildland-urban interface, are challenging efforts to protect citizens, property and our natural resources.

WHEREAS: Wildfires are an essential ecosystem process which cannot be excluded from our landscapes. Therefore coordinated education concerning how, where, and why wildfires burn, as well as collaborated efforts to increase survivability of homes and property are paramount in co-existing in a fire environment.

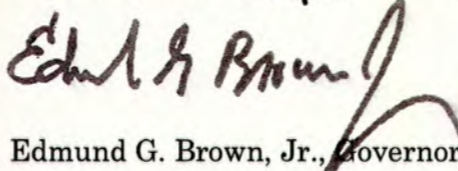

WHEREAS: The local, state and federal wildfire agencies of California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, South Dakota and Utah, in partnership with fire prevention organizations in those states, are working together to increase awareness of wildfires.

in our respective states, and encourage all citizens to use this observance to take steps to better prepare their home and communities for wildfires and work toward becoming a fire adapted community.
